

For the first time ever, experience Frances' Dance Studio's production of Candy Calamity: A Nutcracker Story!!

In collaboration with ballet choreographer Jenny H., we follow the story of Clara, a young girl who receives a Nutcracker doll during her Christmas sleepover. When Clara falls asleep, her Nutcracker doll magically turns into a prince! However, calamity is just around the corner, and her Nutcracker prince ends up dead. Who did it? Help our brave Clara as she journeys through the Land of the Sweets to bring justice and peace to all.

Performance times:

Saturday December 20th at 6:00pm (Doors open 5:15pm)

Sunday December 21st at 3:00pm (Doors open at 2:15pm)

Location: Port Washington High School.

We give back to the community by not charging tickets at our performance. However, most people donate at the door to help us cover the rental of the auditorium which allows us to continue to keep this beautiful artform affordable for everyone.
